Mrs Effie Manley,

Newark, New Jersey

My dear Mrs Manley:

Your invitation to the "Sports Writers"
Get Together at hand, and I wish to reply as follows.

Deeply regret that due to the illness of my little wifey,
I will not be able to attend in person, but I shall be with all of you gathered around the festive board, in spirit.

Please forward a release of the happenings at this meeting in order that I might prepare a story to telegraph in to our Chicago office. I know that hubby and you will have one of your best clubs this season, as will "Soldier Jim" Semler.

With very best personal regards, I remain,

Cordially Yours,
